1969

For every season
there is a time . . .

Observations: '69	2- 27
Events	28- 55
Athletics	56- 83
Organizations	84-121

For every person
there is a time . . .

an awakening of wonder,
an ebbing away of life . . .

an opportunity for sharing,
a realization of effort . . .

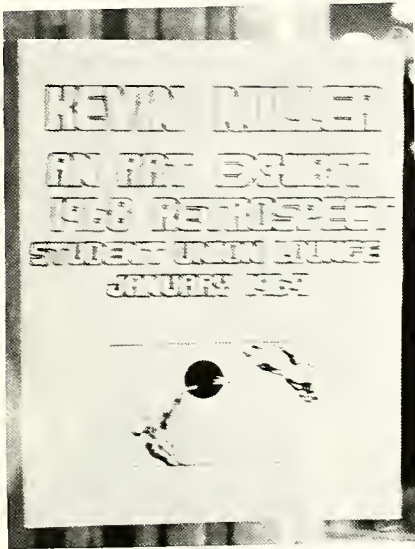

an exultation of the soul,
a withdrawal into oneself . . .

the creation of your own thing,
the destruction of stability . . .

a celebration of life,
a reverence for that which has passed . . .

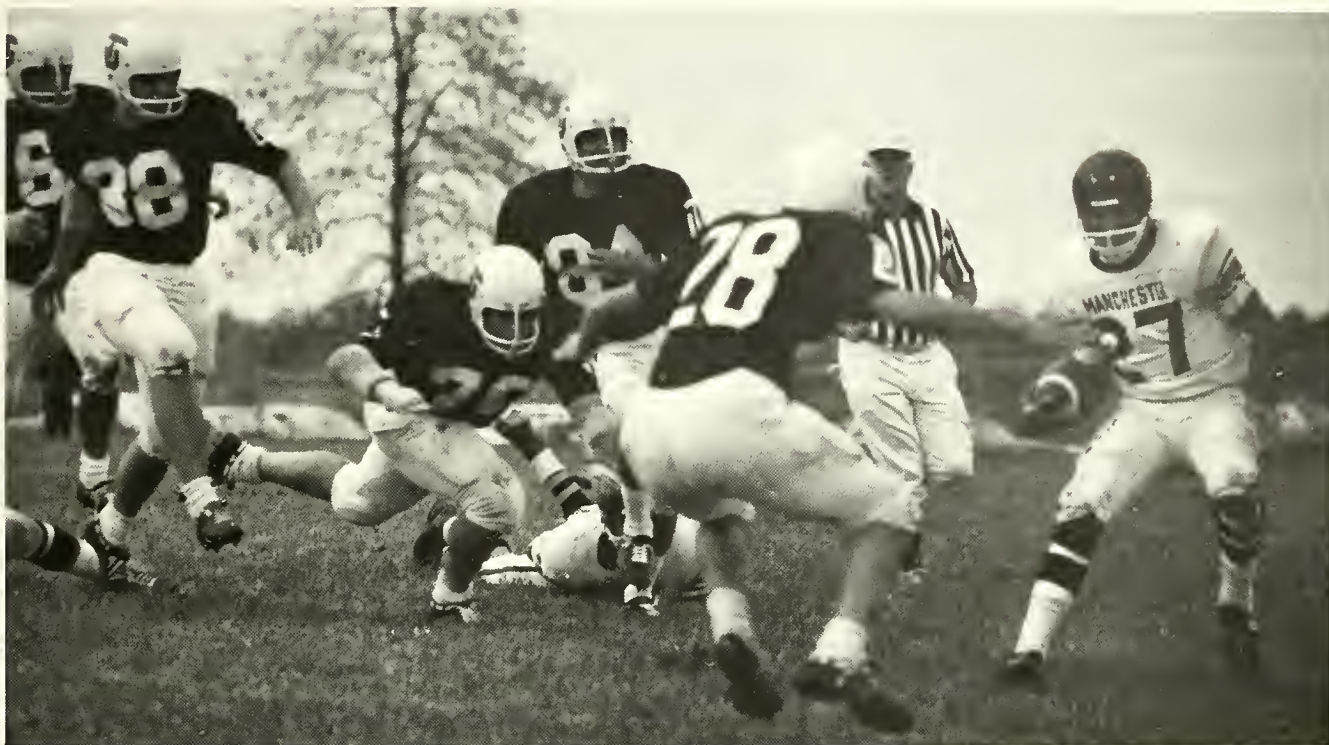

to rid oneself of old ways,
to develop new ideas . . .

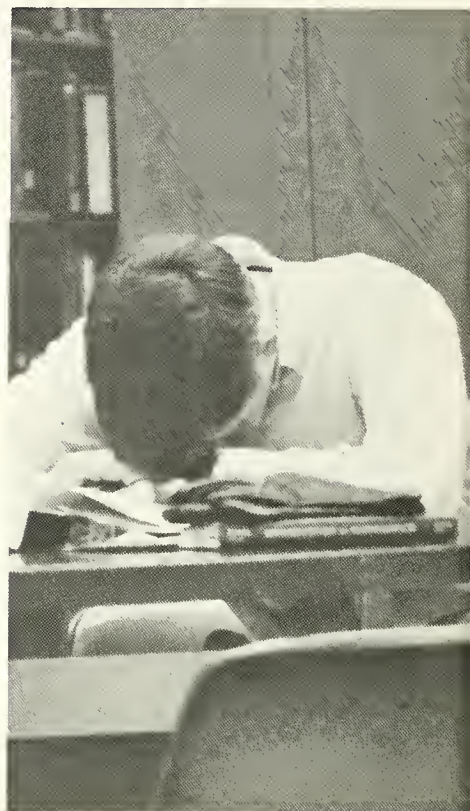

a warm feeling inside,
a curiosity of the unknown . . .

a period of conflict and stress,

a sense of tranquillity . . .

HUNGER KILLS

MANCHESTER BIAFRA RELIEF
JAN 26-FEB 1

an expression of feelings, a containment of thought . . .

an enrichment of ones
being,
a fear of something
precious slipping by ...

a separation of means,
a dialogue of thoughts ...

OAK LEAVES EXPANDS COVERAGE

This year the Oak Leaves attempted to get away from its old image of a "bulletin board" of campus activities and dealt with issues on both a local and national level which are of concern to the student.

In its effort to become more relevant to the student's daily life, his problems, concerns, and ideals, the Oak Leaves examined such things as the smoking regulations on campus, various attitudes and positions toward the draft, the Black student, the relationship between the college and the community of N. Manchester, the Vietnam war, and the significance of student involvement. An attempt was made to present all sides of an issue, besides adding the Oak Leaves' editorial comment.
